COMPETITION FORMAT

This depends on the organisers. We recommend a better ball stableford. Please see Marc in the Pro Shop for advice.

SPONSORS

Setup can only be done on the day.
Please make sure to remove all banners and litter on the day.

DRINKS

Please select any requirements for setup (tables & chairs) from our checklist for watering holes.
All beverages must be purchased from the club
Beverages must be paid for in advance or on the day.
Alcohol may be brought in for watering holes, but can only be given away, not SOLD.

LIGHTENING POLICY

When the siren sounds, play is immediately suspended, and players must return the clubhouse. When the all clear sounds, then players are welcome to resume their game. These measures are for players safety.

FYI

COURSE ETIQUETTE

Be mindful of the pace of play.
Keep up to the group in front.
Allow quicker players to play through.
Call players behind through in case of a lost ball.
Pickup if you cannot score.
Rake bunkers, fill divots, repair pitch marks.

DRESS CODE

No t-shirts or flip-flops allowed. Players are expected to wear golf attire.

HALFWAY HOUSE

The halfway house is stocked with a variety of beverages, hot and cold meals. If halfway house meals are billed to the client account, then vouchers will be issued on the day. A voucher of +- R75 should be enough for something to eat and drink, depending on the players choices. Alternatively the halfway house can be for the players account.

CATERING

Various menu options are available. Catering at registration or for prize giving can be arranged through Monique. Full bar service, buffet area, round tables, table cloths. Chairs, crockery, cutlery, glassware and PA system are included.
